BOGOTA - CARTAGENA - MEDELLIN

BOGOTA

After breakfast this morning, begin your tour of Bogota at the famous food market, Paloquemao, located in the heart of the city. Then it's a short drive to Monserrate, where from a height of 10,000 ft. you can see the spectacular views of the city. Accessed by funicular or cable car, it feels like a separate world. Beyond the chapel with its 17th century Fallen Christ, enjoy the exquisite local food stands offering everything from chocolate and tamales to soups, sausages, and handicrafts. Walk through 'La Candelaria', a historical neighbourhood in downtown Bogota featuring cobble stone streets and Spanish Colonial and Baroque architecture. Then visit the Gold Museum that showcases 34,000 gold pieces as well as 20,000 bone, stone, ceramic, and textile articles belonging to 13 Pre-Hispanic societies.

MEDELLIN

Today, experience the coffee culture on a typical Colombian farm. Departing Medellín, enjoy a scenic ride through unique landscapes and then revel in this unique opportunity to observe the entire process of coffee making – from the plant to the cup. Stroll through the coffee fields learning more about growing and collecting the coffee beans. After an authentically inspired countryside lunch, you will get an insight into the roasting process and how to prepare your next cup of coffee in the best possible way.
