You will also have an opportunity to see the Hercules' Gate and Twin Gates, the Roman Theatre, and many other monuments built by the Roman Empire. Continue to Rovinj, the quintessential Istrian village that features especially strong Venetian influences due to its proximity to Italy's "Serenissima." From the air, its location on a promontory makes it look like a fairytale village suspended on a pillow of bright blue sea. Your walking tour takes you to explore this jewel on the Istrian Coast that was declared a cultural monument in 1963. Return to your Opatija hotel. Enjoy dinner on your own this evening. (B)

Day 7 Opatija - Plitvice National Park Tour – Split Power up with breakfast at your hotel then bid a fond farewell to Opatija and head south for the ancient Roman City of Split. In 1979, the Lakes were included in the UNESCO's World Heritage List as a "natural phenomenon of rare and unique beauty." It consists of 16 lakes that keep changing their color because of the natural process of travertine barriers deposition. Because of the geological substrate and characteristic hydrogeological conditions, the lake system has been divided into the Upper and Lower lakes. After this visit, continue to Split and check in to your hotel. Croatia's second-largest city, Split (Spalato in Italian), is a great place to see Dalmatian life as it's really lived. Always buzzing, this exuberant city has just the right balance between tradition and modernity. Step inside Diocletian's Palace (a UNESCO World Heritage Site and one of the world's most impressive Roman monuments), to experience dozens of bars, restaurants, and shops thriving amid the old atmospheric walls where Split has been humming along for thousands of years. On a walking tour, visit the old town, a UNESCO world heritage site, a treasure trove for lovers of art and architecture with its renaissance and Baroque buildings and Romanesque churches. The cultural capital of Herzegovina, Mostar, is named after the bridge keepers that would guard the old bridge over the Neretva in medieval times. On your walking tour of the city, you will visit the 16th-century stone bridge, explore the remnants of its Turkish quarter, and discover the old city center and the Turkish House. This beautifully preserved House is one of the best examples of Ottoman architecture in Mostar. Here explore its drawing-room, bedroom, kitchen, and see household items. During your visit, you will get acquainted with the typical family life of the 17th century while enjoying Turkish coffee. After your tour, there is free time to explore and shop for distinctive gifts. Next, head south through the Gorge of Neretva River, arriving at the Medieval City of Dubrovnik. Here you will check into your hotel and relax. No matter whether you are visiting Dubrovnik for the first time or the hundredth, the sense of awe never fails to descend when you set eyes on the beauty of Dubrovnik. Indeed, it's hard to imagine anyone becoming weary by the city's limestone streets, baroque buildings, and the endless shimmer of the Adriatic or failing to be inspired by a walk along the ancient city walls that protected the capital of a sophisticated republic for centuries. Tonight, dinner is on your own. (B)

(B)

Day 11 Dubrovnik Today greets you with a full day at leisure to explore Dubrovnik or join an optional Montenegro tour. Then head back for a visit to Perast, situated at the foot of St. Elijah Hill. This includes changes made to passenger's name, hotel, departure/return dates, itinerary and air or ground transportation. A change of tour date and name changes on ESCORTED, INDEPENDENT AND CRUISE PACKAGE TOURS, and Car rentals within full payment date are treated as a cancellation. TRAVEL INFO & RESTRICTIONS

• AIR ARRANGEMENTS SEAT ASSIGNMENT AND SPECIAL REQUEST: Requests for meal requirements, special services and frequent flyer miles (subject to specific airlines rules & availability), are at the sole discretion of the airline; please contact the airline directly to make the necessary arrangements. Some airlines require tickets to be paid in full in order to request special services. As a courtesy to the passenger - once the airline tickets are paid in full and following the rules of the airlines - if possible, we can provide air seats assignments. Please note that - as per airline rules - these seats assignments are not guaranteed. The Airline has the right to modify and reassign, at their own discretion, the seats already assigned and reassign them at check-in time. Central Holidays declines any responsibility and will not accept any complaint related to these procedures.

Some airlines are charging for seat reservations. These fees - if applicable - are at charge of the passengers and are never included in our quotations.

Once you have checked-in is your responsibility to work with the airline directly to reach your final destination or to make any alternate arrangements including possible changes on the return portion of your trip.

In case you miss your flight or a connection, you must work with the specific airline and make all the possible arrangements to reach your final destination. Central Holidays will not be responsible for any additional expenses you may incur because of flight cancellations, flight delays or rescheduled, missed flights after airport check-in.

OWN FLIGHT ARRANGEMENTS:

If you purchase your own flight tickets from companies, other than Central Holidays, we cannot be held responsible for the cancellation fees of air ticket/s in case we may cancel a departure for any reason whatsoever.

If you wish to purchase your own flight tickets with a third party, we suggest you purchase airline tickets that allow you to make changes or cancellations of flights subject to minimum penalties - none of such penalties are the responsibility of Central Holidays.

• VISA & PASSPORTS U.S. Citizens require a valid US passport. Non-U.S. citizens should consult their travel agent or consulate. All passengers are responsible for ensuring they have the proper travel documents and MUST CHECK with the respective consulates or visa agency to determine whether any visas are required. Passengers are also responsible for the validity of their passport and we suggest checking with U.S. Department of State Rules/Regulations. Central Holidays will not be held responsible for any passport and/or visa negligence on the part of passengers.

Visas for travel to Cuba are obtained by Central Holidays prior to the commencement of your program and will be provided on the first evening of your program by your Central Holidays Group Leader.
