

TABLE OF CONTENTS

Gérald Préher and Catherine Seltzer Foreword	11
Sophie Maruéjols-Koch and Laura Torres Zúñiga Introduction	15

PANORAMIC READINGS

Tom Mitchell The Making of a Writer: Tennessee Williams's Early Short Fiction	25
Thomas Keith A Web of Inspiration: The Role of Short Stories in Tennessee Williams's Creative Process	39

FOCUSED PERSPECTIVES

Michael S. D. Hooper "Nothing but time": Retirement, Social Isolation, and Temporality in Tennessee Williams's Short Stories	57
Marta Miquel-Baldellou Abjecting and Embracing Healing and Haunting Specters of Aging in Tennessee Williams's "The Angel in the Alcove" and "The Mysteries of the Joy Rio"	75
Mauricio D. Aguilera Linde "You are kinder than you think": Circe as the Spectral Mother in Tennessee Williams's "Man Bring This Up Road"	91

Luis Marcio Arnaut de Toledo
“Not money, but feelings”: *A Survey of Tennessee Williams’s
Stories in Brazil* 109

NEW(S) FROM THE ARCHIVES

David Kaplan
The Something That Comes to the Widow Holly: The Men from the Polar Star 133

John S. Bak
“A Chicken Farm in Idaho” by Thomas Lanier [Tennessee] Williams.
Commentary by John S. Bak 151

INTERVIEW

Gérald Préher
From Oscar Wilde to Tennessee Williams, from Ireland to the American South: An Interview with Emmanuel Vernadakis 163

BIBLIOGRAPHY

Sophie Maruéjols-Koch and Laura Torres Zúñiga
Tennessee Williams’s Short Fiction: A Bibliography 177

Contributors’ Notes 183