SPECIAL SCREENING
2021 OFFICIAL SELECTION

In a Parisian taxi, a man learns from a Moroccan fortune-teller that his sister is about to die. In an attempt to alter the prediction, the brother embarks on a fictional journey between Morocco, Israel and Paris. Based on family archives and excerpts from the trilogy created by Ronit and Shlomi Elkabetz, Cahiers Noirs : Viviane and Cahiers Noirs : Ronit, invite us into the intimacy of a Jewish-Arab family, a family of uprooted exiles, in an imaginary story where a brother and sister revisit the past and the present to defy an implacable future. But the prophecy still shadows them, as in life, so in cinema.

MARCHÉ DU FILM

A Parisian couple decides to sell an unsanitary basement in their building. A very ordinary, nondescript man, Mr. Fonzie, shows up to buy it. Nothing unusual there, until the man moves into the cellar and makes it his permanent residence. The couple tries desperately to cancel the sale but to no avail. Worse, Mr. Fonzie becomes a threat to their family as he befriends their teenage daughter on whom he seems to exert a perverted influence.

With François Cluzet, Bérénice Bejo, Jérémie Renier
